Business Meeting 7:00pm
Demonstration 7:30pm

Final draft of bylaws will be presented for member approval.

Dave Kahne will demonstrate inlaying turquoise in Turnings

If you have woodturning related items you would like to buy, sell or give away give the information, in writing, to Linda Fellion. The club decided publishing these items in the newsletter would be a valuable service to members.

NUTS & BOLTS

Notes from June Meeting

Organizational Structure

Preliminary Bylaws were presented. Final version of the bylaws will be approved at the July meeting. Advantages and disadvantages of becoming an AAW chapter were discussed. Cost for third party liability coverage through a private insurance company is being investigated before a final decision is made.

Two new offices were created. A secretary, who will take minutes of the meeting to help ensure accurate information in the newsletter, and a historian/photographer.

Comittee information

Treasurer's Report

As of the June meeting, The checkbook balance was $917. The cost of the June newsletter had not been deducted.

Club Library - Ken Colasuonno created a list of potential library purchases. Members had the opportunity to mark their preferences on the list at the June meeting. Ken will develop a priority list for purchasing resources.

Program - Chris Stott, a box maker from England, will be in the area in December. Program committee will try to get him to demonstrate for our club on a night separate from our normal meeting night.

Wood Exchange - Dale Mikkelson was able to obtain some aspen. It was made available to members during the June meeting.

Member Book and Video Resource List - This is a list of books and videos owned by club members that they would be willing to lend to other club members. Ray Kowrach is putting this list together, but has not received any information. Please, if you have books or videos that you would be willing to lend, fill out the enclosed form and bring it to the next meeting, or mail it to Ray Kowrach, 1808 Newton Dr., Cheyenne, WY 82070.

Fundraising - Trent Bosch and Linda Fellion volunteered to put together ideas for fundraising. If you have ideas or opinions about fundraising activities, please feel free to call Trent or Linda.
